ARCHITECTURAL SIGNIFICANCE (Describe important architectural features and evaluate in terms of other buildings within the community.)

This house, reputedly the ell of the house at 32 Vine Brook Road, displays no features which would pinpoint its construction date, although the narrowness of the distance from upper story windows to eaves would seem to indicate a pre-Greek Revival date. The doorway is a twentieth century replacement.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE (Explain the role owners played in local or state history and how the building relates to the development of the community.)

For complete history of this house, see 32 Vine Brook Road form. ^(#465) The house was moved from 1960 Massachusetts Avenue to this site in 1941.
